

the requirements enumerated in Government Code sections 1029-1031. It is POST's role to assist agencies in achieving such compliance with selection standards. However, the decision whether to appoint an individual as a peace officer rests with the agency head. Differences of opinion can exist regarding whether or not an individual should be appointed as a peace officer.